

Every individual has the capacity
for brilliance

Sheridan Worldwide

Sheridan's brand ethos

Brilliance Realised

At Sheridan, we operate on one simple, positive assumption:

Every individual has the capacity for brilliance.

Sheridan's mission is to provide a tailored approach to each challenge which taps into the huge potential that is within people and organisations to realise their brilliance and maximise business potential globally.

Why the hummingbird

The hummingbird is the only bird in the world that can fly backwards and hover, so has the ability to assess a situation or issue from all angles before deciding the best approach. We too take into account different perspectives, giving both us and our clients time to think and space to grow. We also are unique, active and agile, and like the hummingbird, we won't take on challenges to which we are not best suited. Other birds have other skills, but the hummingbird symbolises ours.

Our values

Our values define how we work, align our team and drive our success.

Courageous

We are courageous in our approach. We lead by example and we are willing to challenge the status quo to realise brilliance in people and organisations

Creativity

Creativity is the driving force behind personalisation. It drives a constant search for the most important appropriate solution for the issue faced.

Caring

We care about our clients, our faculty and our team seeking the best outcomes every time.

Connected

Our global reach is built on connections of outstanding diversity and breadth.

Committed

We are committed to acting on our word, to adopting a partnering approach.
